Respect for victims of terrorist attack

2 Games preceded by a minute's silence

FOLLOWING the horrendous terrorist attack on Monday evening, games this week were preceded by a minute's silence. The tragedy also impacted on Tuesday night's games with the Enforcers' game against the Meteors called off, due to large numbers of the Enforcers team who are members of GMP being called to duty. Other teams were given dispensation to start games late as players faced transport disruption, especially those crossing the city centre. Thankfully, as far as we are aware, no one from the Manchester softball community has been directly affected by the incident, but of course we are all reeling from the shock of what has been described as "the deadliest attack on British soil since 7/7". Mancunians were sombre and subdued the morning after, but it was quickly decided that to cancel the evening's MSL games would only be letting terrorism win.

AND so, in bright sunshine hardly fitting the mood of the evening, there were run-ahead rule wins (other names seem particularly inap-

IS it me or are May and September now the best months of the year? For the last five years the last week in May has been a cracker, the one where it's not worth going abroad in the half term. We had a beautiful, Mediterranean night this Wednesday and standing at bat on Pitch 6 with the sun warming your legs strobing through the heavy cover of trees and shrubs was pretty unique. It was harder in the outfield, where a number of catches went down with fielders looking into a dazzling sky.

This was a bit of an epic clash, two hours long. When Mayhem clocked a precisely hit seven runs in the first inning in response to Speeders' zero, it looked like various Reds on the field may be getting to see most of the UEFA final after all. In spite of Speeders notching up some doubles, Mayhem carried on finding the gaps with Steve Howard amassing a remarkable three HRs to see the Mossley crew comfortably lead 19-13 after four innings. Cue the Speeders comeback. Without a homer in sight but with consistent flat hits and doubles to the outfield, including Adam Faloona's 6 RBIs and MVP Chris Lennon following up last week's three doubles with another haul this week, Speeders clocked up ten runs at the top of the 5th. And in the field the fast ones kept Mayhem bats quiet with the devilish combo of veteran pitchers Jez and Matt confining the 'Hem to three runs in the last three innings, sealing victory with a neat three up, three out shutout at the bottom of the 7th. Heady stuff from the Manch tourney Rec champs. On to the rematch of that Rec final v the Camels next week. Arriba The Boys and Girls of Summer!

PS Special mention to Speeders Vicky Barlow who showed her sister a thing or two with a glorious triple up the middle. Matt O'Casey

FOR the fourth game of the season, the Rebels combined good defence with hot bats to secure a run-ahead rule victory against the newly formed Blue Jays. It's hard to say a particular player led the scoring with four players batting 1.000 (Conor Battersby, Sarah Cassin, Emma Miller and Chuan Fu Yap) and four players securing home runs (Conor, Hayley McTear, Sarah and Chuan Fu) with the rest of the team also putting solid performances in both with the bats and gloves. In the field Rebels were tight, keeping the Blue Jays to only six runs, including two innings which were shut-outs. Emma Miller MVPs McTear, Battersby (REB), Weaver, Triggs (BLJ)

Exec to fund U19s

THE Exec has agreed to match—up to a limit of £250 per player—money raised by the five young MSL players selected for the GB U19 fastpitch squad to fund their trip to Prague for the European Championships next month.

As reported in these pages two weeks ago (BL 23.3), Nathan Barratt (Lightning), Max Fagan (Bats), Dan Downes, Jonathon Downes (both Tigers) and Tom Russell (Thunder), were called up after trying out for the team.

Watch this space for details of how you can help these young softballers.

Wednesday afternoon batting practice

ATTENTION all players who have free time on Wednesday afternoons. Batting practice sessions are taking place at Metrovicks (M33 6LR), 2 pm to 4 pm. All are welcome (especially pitchers!). These sessions are FREE! If you are interested in future sessions, but can't get there this week please get in touch with Dave Wareham.

Respect for victims of terrorism

appropriate) for the Rebels over the suddenly faltering Blue Jays with three bat-arounds, and Hurricanes who went 15 runs ahead of Freeze in the bottom of the 5th. Titans scored 11 in the 2nd inning and were always comfortable against the Vipers, with seven runs in the 6th doubling their lead. Much closer was the game between Colt 45s and Phoenix. After a 1-1 1st inning, Colts got five but Phoenix batted round to score ten. The revolvers hit back with six, but the firebirds kept their beaks in front and after the two teams shared ten more runs in the 5th, Phoenix edged further ahead to win 22-19. And the Hackers' response to the Barflies taking an 11-5 lead in the 4th was to score eight, giving them a 2-run lead which they held to the end.

The following night there were more silent tributes before some momentous games. Thunder showed that they really may be a force to reckon with as they maintained their 1.000 record with a convincing defeat of the champion Lions. The Greensox played the Mavericks for the 57th time and at last tied up this most-played series at 28 wins each plus one tie. Sox got off to a good start and maintained a lead of 5 runs or more for most of the game. Danny Gunn was one of seven players this week to get three homers. Anthony Reyes was another of these triple crowners in the Dodgers' 17-10 defeat of the Meerkats, with Mr and Mrs Lott playing their last game for the Kats before donning the cream and green. The Dodgers got their 17 runs in the middle innings scoring steadily while holding the suricates to ones and twos.

IN Division 2, the desert derby saw the Camels' Tom Atkinson get round in one on three occasions as the senior bactrians beat their junior partners Camels II, and exchanged places in the standings, with five free-scoring innings. The Sharks had one good inning against the Mutineers, who led from the start, and managed 11 in the top of the 6th to secure a win by the run-ahead rule. Much closer was the Speeders' game with Mayhem. Mossley, fresh from last week's nervy victory, got off to a great start with a bat-around 1st inning, and were leading by 8, 6 and 6 in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th innings. Then Speeders managed ten runs in the top of the 5th to take a two-run lead, which they extended in the 6th, and with two shut-outs to end the game, Speeders prevailed by 27-22.

THURSDAY evening saw a trio of exciting high-scoring games with an average of 48 runs per game and winning margins of 2, 2 and 1. Bats got off to a fine start with ten runs in their 1st inning, only to see Drizzle reciprocate in the 2nd to take a 14-13 lead. Over the next two innings Didsbury scored nine while defending first a shut-out and then, by contrast, a bat-around. Drizzle now led 21-19. The next two innings saw further bat-arounds for each team and going into the 7th Bats had a two-run deficit and the disadvantage of batting first. Four runs scored saw them edge into a 33-31 lead, which they successfully defended in the bottom of the 7th. Pirates and Rippers managed a mere 34 runs between them as the lead swung from PIR to RIP and back again. As in the other game, the away team snatched the incentive in the top of the 7th and then defended a two-run lead to take the points 18-16. For most of their game against Storm, the Tigers maintained a slim advantage, and were six runs ahead after five innings. Then Storm managed to go ahead, though only by one run, in the top of the 7th, and the home team overcame to win by the odd run in 45.

Fastpitch in Manchester

Dave Wareham

Where we are and where we can go next

SINCE January 2016 there have been a number of fastpitch softball sessions held in Manchester with varying degrees of success. Independently a number of under-19 players from Manchester and Sefton have signed up for the GB fastpitch programme and five of them have been selected for the squad that will play in the European championships in Prague this July, as reported in BL 23.3

Against this, numbers at some of the sessions haven't been great, there certainly aren't enough people com-strikes on a consistent basis it's hard to play !

- A more general lack of players with previous fastpitch experience who actually want to play. There are a number of players who have played fastpitch abroad but they have slowpitch commitments and most of them aren't keen (or don't have the time) to play fastpitch as well.

So should we just give up? I don't think so. Fastpitch softball has a lot to offer: as well as the challenge of hitting the faster pitch-week (or weekend) indoor games through the winter there would be the chance for people to try this new version of the game and see if they like it.

The lack of pitchers is harder to solve but I think we could simplify things by initially looking to play modified pitch rather than fastpitch softball. In modified pitch the pitcher still throws the ball hard but can't leap or bring their arm round in a complete circle. This is easier to pick up for new pitchers and also has the advantage of being somewhat easier to hit (!) which ing along to play proper regular games, and there are also other significant obstacles in the way of establishing fastpitch in Manchester:

- A lack of space in the calendar – with three nights of league play each week, plus weekend tournaments and team training sessions there just isn't really much room for fastpitch as well.
- A lack of competent pitchers – without pitchers who can throw ing, bunting and base stealing add extra layers of interest and complexity to the game that make it a new and very different challenge.

I think we should recognise that at the moment there just isn't enough time in the summer schedule to allow fastpitch to grow from scratch. But in the off season there's much more space on the calendar. If we ran mid-would ease the transition from slowpitch for batters who haven't played fastpitch before.

Once we have players who have played fastpitch indoors it should be much easier to get outdoor summer fastpitch up and running. We'd have a pool of players who weren't just interested in that form of the game but also had some experience in playing it.

Next week's games - Week 6 (6/7/8 June)

Division 1

Dodgers @ Greensox (6) Last meeting 22 June 2016, Greensox won 9-5, and lead in this, the league's third most-played fixture, 41-11.

Lightning @ Lions (3) Last meeting 8 May 2013, Lions won 16-1 in 4½ innings, and lead overall 2-0.

Thunder @ Mavericks (5) Last meeting 17 August 2016, Thunder won 20-5 in 5 innings, reducing the Mavs' overall lead to 10-8.

Meerkats rest

Division 2

Not much to write about in Division 2 as all three match-ups represent the pairs' first ever meeting.

Mavericks II @ Speeders (2)

Mayhem @ Camels II (4)

Sharks @ Camels (9)

Mutineers rest

Division 3

Drizzle @ Outlaws (6) First ever meeting.

Rippers @ Storm (8) First ever meeting.

Tigers @ Bats (7) Last meeting 18 June 2014 (Division 2), Tigers won 23-8 in 6 innings, and lead 2-0.

Pirates rest

Division 4

Enforcers @ Blue Jays (2) First ever meeting.

Freeze @ Phoenix (7) Last meeting 12 July 2016, Freeze won 28-26. This high-scoring game didn't actually set any records, but must have been a fair old ding-dong. Freeze launched the game with an 11-run opening salvo, and had taken a 20-9 lead after 2½ innings when Phoenix came right back and reduced the deficit to one run, and then got their beaks in front, leading 25-22 after 4. But Freeze unfroze, and edged ahead once again to win by two. Of their seven meetings, the firebirds have won five.

Hackers @ Vipers (1) First ever meeting.

Hurricanes @ Titans (3) Only previous meeting 9 August 2016, Hurricanes won 23-3 in 4 innings.

Meteors @ Colt 45s (4) First ever meeting.

Rebels @ Barflies (6) Last meeting 16 July 2013, Rebels, under their old name Mayhem II, won this Div 3/4 cup game 18-13. It was their third win in four meetings.
